Summary: On October 27, 2000, Bruce Foster, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, of Southern California Edison Company (Edison), had a telephone conversation with Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Duque. Laura Krannawitter, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, also participated in the communication. Foster expressed the Company's deep concern that – based on the actions at that morning's prehearing conference – there might be an indication that the important and urgent issues specifically raised by Edison's emergency petition for modification of decisions D99-10-057 and D00-03-058 would not be addressed in a timely manner. Foster reiterated Edison's position that there are serious financial implications to Edison resulting from a failure to resolve the ever-increasing undercollections in the Transition Revenue Account, and urged to establish a schedule for addressing the issues raised in the petition.

Summary: On November 1, 2000, Greg R. Gierczak, Executive Director-Regulatory of Roseville Telephone Company ("Roseville"), met with Cmmr. Neep in San Francisco. Also present were Lester Wong, advisor to Cmmr. Bilas, and Michael Campbell, Roseville's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Gierczak and Campbell explained why replacement of the Extended Area Service payments is appropriate under the Commission's New Regulatory Framework and stated that the proposed decision in the proceeding is inconsistent with the policies behind the Commission's New Regulatory Framework.

Summary: On November 1, 2000, Robert Finkelstein of The Utility Reform Network ("TURN"), met with Laura Krannawitter, advisor to Cmmr. Dueque, in San Francisco. Finkelstein expressed TURN's and the Utility Workers Union of America's ("UWUA") commitment to pursuing rejection of Edison's application through testimony, hearings, and briefs if necessary. Finkelstein pointed out that, under the current circumstances in the wholesale electric market, it makes no sense to even consider allowing Edison to divest its interest in plants with relatively low incremental operating costs that now have to sell Edison's share of the output into California's market. Finkelstein also stated that there being no circumstances under which divestiture makes sense, the application should be dismissed, and granting TURN's and UWUA's motion to dismiss is the most expeditious course to that outcome.
